

Appl. No. 10/573,419
Amendment dated: June 15, 2009

REMARKS

Applicants have amended the claims in order to more particularly define the presently claimed invention. All of the claims have been cancelled without prejudiced or disclaimer and subject to the right to add any cancelled subject matter to the application.

Applicants are submitting herewith a copy of the Search Report which issued on International Application No. SG 200601935-0, of which was filed on September 25, 2004. All of the publications cited in the International Search Report are listed on the attached Form PTO/SB08A. These references were cited in a communication from a Singaporean Patent Office in a counterpart application of the subject application. Applicant also notes that Singaporean Patent Office presently receives the search report from the Australian Patent Office.

Applicants have amendments to the claims, and provided newly cited references in the above identified application and favorable consideration of this Preliminary Amendment is most respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

BACON & THOMAS, PLLC
